ing his cousin, Harry Dopp, on Saturday last.
Mrs. Emma Marshall has been enjoying a visit with her sister, Mrs. Mead, from Ionia.

Seward & Marshall report their spray pumps as going faster than they can make them.
Miss Beebe, who has been a guest at Mrs. Conaway's, left yesterday afternoon for Chicago.

Messrs. Secord & Dewey of the Decatur Independent were in town on business yesterday.
Mrs. D. Grainger and son Chester went to Grand Rapids and Ionia, Saturday, returning yesterday.

Mrs. Bell Warner and little daughter Mattie are visiting her father Mr.
R. E. Quick, and their relatives.

Judge Isaac Barnum of Denver is here, called by the sickness of his mother, who is gradually failing.

Don't fail to hear Lynn Free as Alexander Fairfax in the Golden Giant Mine, Tuesday evening, May 14th.

Win Pugsley's home is now one of the neatest places in town. Jas. Leech is the artist who worked the transformation.

Marshal Allen says there will be some prosecutions under the bicycle ordinance if wheelmen persist in riding on the sidewalks.

Chas. S. Cole left Tuesday night for Green Bay, Wis., to accept the formanship of the Advocate job department in that city.

Fred Bilsborrow was here from Sturgis over Sunday. He reports business starting out nicely for him and his partner, John Clapp.

Sheriff Lamberson is having the county offices repaired, repainted and otherwise renovated. New furniture has been placed in them.

Mrs. Emma Marshall is receiving new millinery goods daily, and her establishment is becoming a favorite place for the ladies to do their trading.

A. Lynn Free says he has no definite plans for the future when he leaves Gobleville, but expects to locate somewhere in Michigan to practice his profession.

Bruner, Wall & Co. have samples of steel siding in imitation of stone and brick, and invite all who contemplate building or repairing to see them. See their card.

Holmes & Bilsborrow are selling a mole trap that will catch moles where-ever there are any, and some people say it will catch them whether there are any or not.

The opening base ball game of the season will be played at Lawton, May 15th, between Hartford and Lawton. A number of local "fans" will drive over to see the game.

A good sized audience listened to an eloquent discourse delivered by Rev. J.
H. Kennie at the monthly union temperance meeting held at the Disciple church last Sunday evening.

The Coterie on Wednesday last held its meeting with Mrs. Lou Butler. All declared the ride lovely after the rain.
The program was enjoyed, and the lemonade and cake served, was very fine.

President Will T. Welch has called a meeting of the high school alumni to be held at the home of Mrs. Bryar, Saturday evening of this week at 7:30, to make arrangements for the annual reunion. All alumni are desired to be present.

Engene Cooley is making extensive repairs on the Forsythe place, which he has purchased. The improvements being made will add much to the attractiveness of that part of town.

The Decatur Independent showed commendable enterprise in getting out a paper last week, after fire had destroyed the office. The work was done at Dowagiac.

On Sunday, Will Deming's barn, a couple of miles north of town, was burned with all its contents except the horses, which were saved. Hay, grain, etc. destroyed. The barn was insured for $300, contents for $200, which will cover the loss.

Judge Padgham don't allow any "monkeying" in his court in connection with local option cases. He sentenced one witness to jail five days for not answering questions promptly, another for thirty days for not appearing when subpoenaed and a third witness has been arrested for perjury.

As the harvesting season draws near, farmers begin to look to their machinery. It is not only a loss of time, but it is vexing to use old worn out machines.
In buying new, beware of machines not adjustable. Every part of the Deering ball and roller bearing machines can be adjusted for years of wear.

Clum. Engle has received his commission as county game warden. He desires to warn all persons against violation of the fish and game laws.
He says he don't desire to prosecute anybody, but he will do his duty without fear or favor, to use his own language, "even if he should have to prosecute his own brother."

Miss Minnie Gilson, only child of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Gilson, died at the family home west of this village early Tuesday morning, from consumption, at the age of 18 years. The funeral was held Thursday at 2 p. m. at the house.
Rev. Stinchcomb officiating. The pall bearers were young ladies selected from Minnie's Sunday school class. The burial was at Prospect. Miss Minnie was a lovely young lady and her untimely death is sincerely mourned.

The Coterie will meet with Mrs.
Lottie Warner, May 15th.

Avery's store is filled with new and attractive summer bargains.

Chas. Melchor of New York, is shaking hands with old Paw Paw friends.

Broughton offers seasonable goods in his adv. this week. Do not fail to read it.

Sellick & Co. quote some trade attracting prices in their adv. this week.

James Phillips caught a couple of fine pickered at Pugsley's early in the week.

Mr. Cavanaugh's presence in the Golden Giant Mine, is an assurance of its worth.

"Bill" Bullard and "Dell" Cumings will furnish martial music here for Memorial Day.

Remember the fifteen minute service of song at the Free Baptist church Sunday evening. Subject, "A Peculiar Traveler."

There will be a trotting matinee at the Cleveland Bay grounds on Saturday of next week. The program has not been arranged, but some good races are expected.

Regular meeting Brodhead post, G.
A. R., next Monday evening. A full attendance is desired as arrangements for Memorial Day will be finally consummated at such meeting.

At the Methodist church next Sunday, subject for morning sermon, "The law of supply;" evening, 2d lecture, "The errors of spiritualists in explaining phenomena." Come and hear.

The remarkably warm weather has ripened picnic parties rather earlier in the season than usual. Pugsley's, Three Mile and Lake Cora all attract the seekers of fun, fish, bugs and mosquitoes.

Secord & Dewey of the Decatur Independent have purchased a large portion of the outfit of the Van Buren County Republican. They will add to it materially and will have one of the very best outfitted printing establishments in the county.

In past years, Paw Paw speakers have been in great demand for Memorial Day, but so far as we are able to learn, Judge Heckert is the only one engaged for this year, and it is a satisfaction to his many friends that he has consented to remain at home and will deliver the address in Paw Paw.

He was hilariously drunk Wednesday night, and an officer had started with him for the jail. He begged piteously; said he had no money, or he would "tip" the officer, "as they do in the cities," but he had "at home a sandy pig and another one, and if you will take me home you may bring both pigs back with you." The officer's heart softened at this plea and the owner of the pigs was turned loose.

Several years ago, Albert Colburn, a Waverly boy, went to Eureka, Cal., and he has since been engaged in herding sheep on the hills in that vicinity.
A short time since, he had the marvelous good fortune to discover a ledge of gold bearing quartz. He reported the find to our former townsman, Mr. Samuel Holmes, who sent at once an expert to examine the quartz, which it is said will yield from $50 to $75 per ton and bids fair to make them both rich.

Routine business occupied most of the time of the common council Monday evening. The sidewalk committee reported some new walks constructed and promised to make a tour of the town to inspect walks in the near future.

The tax roll amounting to a little over $700,000, was approved and a tax of one per cent voted. This will put a considerable amount into the general fund, and work on sidewalks and streets, neglected last season, will be properly cared for. The council voted $15 to aid in the celebration of Memorial Day.

We are pleased to announce that Dr.
M. E. Whalen is slightly better and, while he is yet in a critical condition, hopes are entertained for his recovery.

All that medical aid can do has been done. Dr. Hoyt has been constant in his attendance. Dr. Vaughn from Ann Arbor has been here and is expected again. Dr. Rose has been consulted in the case, and Drs. LaCrosse, Bosman and Van Zwaluwenberg of Kalamazoo, Maxwell of Decatur and Palmer of Hartford have called. The NORTH-ERNER is only one of hosts of friends who, appreciating the doctor's worth, hope to see him again active in our midst.

Nearly a year ago a complaint was made against Ed. Widner of Lawrence and others, charging them with stealing a keg of cider, the property of Prof. W. A. Phillips. One of the offenders was promptly arrested and served his time in jail in expiation of the offense, but Widner skipped out and until a few days since, has evaded all efforts made to secure his apprehension.

On Sunday last, he was captured at Benton Harbor, and being brought to Paw Paw, was arraigned last Monday morning, before Justice Rowland, pleaded guilty to the charge and is now serving out his sentence of ninety days in the county bastille.

The Races.
The races at the Cleveland Bay grounds Saturday afternoon were not fast, nor very hotly contested, but it was a nice practice for the horses and showed that we have some fine racers here. Andrew C. particularly won the hearts of the crowd by his honesty on the track. Only two heats were had in the second race, because of Blue Jeans receiving a cut that rendered withdrawing necessary. Following are the summaries:

FIRST EVENT.
Andrew C. 1 2 1
Old Dick 3 1 2
Billy Wilkes 2 3 3
Best time 1:24 for half-mile.

SECOND EVENT.
Charley Rex 2 1
Blue Jeans 1 2
Best time 1:25 for half mile.
